FLAGS USED IN THE DOMINIONS AND COLONIES.

1. The Royal Standard will be flown at Government House on the King's Birthday, and on the days of His Majesty's Accession and Coronation.

2. The Union Flag, without the Badge of the Dominion or Colony, will be flown at Government House from sunrise to sunset on other days.

3. The Union Flag, with the approved Badge of the Dominion or Colony emblazoned in the centre thereof on a white shield surrounded by a green* garland, as shown on plate No. 4, will be used by a Governor, or by a Lieutenant-Governor or other Officer administering a Government, when embarked in a boat or other vessel.

4. The British Blue Ensign with the Badge of the Dominion or Colony emblazoned in the centre of the fly (i.e., in the centre of that part between the Union Jack and the end of the Flag), and the pendant, as shown on plate No. 5, will be flown by all armed vessels which belong to or are in the service of the Government of a Dominion or Colony. Such vessels when not armed will fly a similar Blue Ensign but no pendant.

5. All other vessels registered as belonging to His Majesty's subjects in His Majesty's Dominions, Colonies or Dependencies will fly the Red Ensign without any Badge, unless otherwise authorised by Warrant from His Majesty or from the Admiralty. Such Warrants have been issued in the case of Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia, and New Zealand. (For drawings of these Ensigns, see plates.) Colonial Merchant vessels may carry distinguishing flags with the Badge of the Dominion or Colony thereon, in addition to the Red Ensign, provided that such flags do not infringe Section 73 (2) of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894.

NOTE.—The white circles within which some of the Badges are shown on the plates are not to appear on the Blue and Red Ensigns except where they are necessary to display the designs of the Badges, e.g., where the Badge itself has a border of the same colour as the Ensign.

* The garland consists, in the case of Canada of maple leaves [see plate 8], in the case of New Zealand of fern leaves [see plate 14], and in other cases of laurel leaves.

DIMENSIONS.

The practice has been in regard to the dimensions of Flags generally to make the length twice the breadth at the head ; generally the proportions of the several parts will be as follow :—

UNION FLAGS.

DESCRIPTION OF CROSS.	The Width of the several Crosses.	Proportions generally in the Union Flag.	Dimensions in a Union Flag of 10 Breadths as an example (A).
ST. GEORGE'S CROSS ...	(a) The red of the St. George's Cross to be	$\frac{1}{3}$ th the width of the Flag.	ft. ins. 1 6
	(b) The white border to the St. George's Cross to be	$\frac{1}{15}$ th the width of the Flag, or $\frac{1}{3}$ rd the red of the St. George's Cross.	0 6
(B) ST. ANDREW'S AND ST. PATRICK'S CROSSES.	(c) The red of the St. Patrick's Cross to be	$\frac{1}{15}$ th the width of the Flag, or $\frac{1}{3}$ rd the red of the St. George's Cross.	0 6
	(d) The narrow white border of the St. Patrick's Cross to be	$\frac{1}{30}$ th the width of the Flag, or $\frac{1}{6}$ th the red of the St. George's Cross.	0 3
	(e) The broad white of the St. Andrew's Cross to be	$\frac{1}{10}$ th the width of the Flag, or $\frac{1}{2}$ the red of the St. George's Cross (or equal to the red of the St. Patrick's Cross, together with one of its narrow white borders).	0 9

NOTE (A).—A Flag of 10 Breadths measures 7 ft. 6 ins. in width by 15 ft. in length.

NOTE (B).—As the Breadths of the Red and Narrow White Stripes of the St. Patrick's and St. Andrew's Crosses are together equal to the Broad White of the St. Andrew's Cross, the centre line of these three parts, which will be one edge of the Red Cross, should form a diagonal to the Union Flag, observing that the Broad White should be on the upper part of the Cross in the quarters at the Head of the Union Flag, and on the lower part of the Cross in the quarters at the Fly.
