

Another offshore vessel attacked in Gulf of Mexico

NIKOLAY TORKINNews

April 17, 2020 8:16 am

Post Views: 1,683

Offshore accommodation vessel TELFORD 28 was attacked in the evening Apr 14 at Ciudad Del Carmen Anchorage, Mexico, Gulf of Mexico, according to Offshore Engineer news website oedigital.com. Understood it was a robbery, pirates looting both staff and vessel's valuable items, and escaped. One crew was injured and taken to hospital, his life is not in danger. Pirates attacks in this area have become regular.

Offshore accommodation vessel TELFORD 28, IMO 8769638, GT 13062, built 2007, flag Gibraltar, owner Telford Offshore.

